Vedanta lays the foundation stone for the second ‘Nandghar’ in Karnataka

Chitradurga, March 4, 2017: Vedanta – Sesa Goa Iron Ore has partnered with Directorate of Women & Child Development, Government of Karnataka to construct modern Anganwadi – ‘Nandghar’, a Vedanta initiative to skill and develop the woman and children of the society. The foundation stone for the ‘Nandghar’ at Bommenahalli Village, Chitradurga was laid by Mr. Parameshwarappa – Rtd., Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (PCCF) Govt. of Karnataka, in the distinguished presence of Mr. Ravishankar Reddy- BEO, Chitradurga, Mr.Siddeshappa – CDPO, Chitradurga, Mrs. Lolakshamma – Head Mistress, Mr. Manjunath – Vice President, Gram Panchayath-Bommenahalli and Mr.Vijayanand Chakrasali-Head Operations-Vedanta Limited, Teachers , Panchayat members and students of the Government Primary school .

The ‘Nandghar’, a first of its kind Public Private Partnership (PPP) model, in partnership with the government has the potential to be a movement for a holistic approach towards child care and women empowerment. The land for the ‘Nandghar’ would be provided by the Education Department and the construction will be undertaken by MAAD Construction Private Limited.

Speaking on this occasion Mr. Parameshwarappa – (Rtd) Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (PCCF) Govt. of Karnataka, “I am very delighted with this unique project of Vedanta Group to construct the Nandghar in Chitradurga. It will benefit children and women resulting into an overall development of the village. Vedanta’s effort to support child development through such programs is appreciated. We are very happy to have such company in our Chitradurga”

“We are excited about this unique partnership with the Vedanta Group to construct two more ‘Nandghars’ in Karnataka adding to the four thousand planned across the nation. ‘Nandghar’ will be developed in some of the high burden districts where the Ministry is proposing to launch the ‘National Nutrition Mission’ shortly. The mission will involve more non-government partners contributing collectively to one common objective of eliminating malnutrition,” said Mr. Chandrakant Patil, AGM, Vedanta Limited.

Mr. Vijayanand Chakrasali, Head of Operations, Karnataka, said, “The ‘Nandghar’ project aligns with our Honorable Prime Minister’s vision and our commitment as a corporate citizen to the State of Karnataka. The ‘Nandghar’ centers are devoted to child education, women welfare and skill development.”
