Blood donation camp on World AIDS Day at Vedanta's SSLT Goa division

Panaji, GOA, December 02, 2014: Sesa Sterlite Limited's Iron Ore business unit in association with Goa State AIDS Control Society, Goa Medical College & Hospital, Hospicio Hospital Margao and Asilo Hospital, Mapusa conducted Blood Donation Camp at its various locations in Goa on December 1, 2014.

The Blood Donation Camp is organised by the company, consistently for the past six years. Each of the 120 employees who enthusiastically donated blood were given a donor's card. Till date around 1018 employees have donated blood in this manner.

Sesa Sterlite Limited believes that organizing blood donation camps on a regular basis is very important. It believes that all sections of society should contribute towards the society and save lives. The company spokesperson said that everyone should donate blood as it is our social responsibility towards our society. "Blood can't be manufactured as other things, and it can only be given to save the lives. Donating blood is a lifesaving attempt. You don't lose anything if you donate blood as a human body has a regenerating mechanism".

Dr. Claire D'mello, Medical Officer, Goa Medical College, Blood Bank, applauded the management and employees for organizing the Blood Donation Camp in a well-planned manner. She also lauded the motivation of employees for their highly enthusiastic contribution and making it a success.
