Vedanta wins accolades at the 55th ABCI awards

New Delhi: 23 March 2016: Vedanta Limited, India's only diversified natural resources company won the Association of Business Communicators of India (ABCI) 'Silver Award' in the 'in-house newsletter' category for 'VEDANSH', the newsletter of its Jharsuguda operations. Vedanta's subsidiary BALCO's publication 'BALCO Today' was conferred with ABCI's 'Bronze Award' in the 'e-newsletter category'. The awards were bestowed at the 55th Annual Awards Contest, last week, as a recognition for the publications' quality, concept and content.

"At Vedanta, our proactive internal communication aims at empowering our global team to drive excellence and innovation, demonstrate world-class standards of governance, safety, sustainability and social responsibility. I am delighted that Vedanta has been recognized and commend both teams for their efforts," said Ms. Roma Balwani, President, Group Communications, Sustainability & CSR.

VEDANSH is published quarterly and serves to disseminate interesting and informative facts about Vedanta's work culture, employee engagement, volunteerism and CSR initiatives as well as the company's achievements. It transparently and proactively engages with the core strength of the organization, which is its human resource. BALCO Today, a daily internal e-mailer is circulated with the purpose of informing, inspiring and integrating the BALCO employees as one team with one purpose.

The ABCI is the oldest and largest of communication body in India. Its annual contests attract keen competition. This year, over 120 organizations representing private sector companies, PSUs and communication agencies had submitted a total of 1425 entries.
